

A group of people are seated around a long, dark, rectangular table in a restaurant or lounge setting. The table is set with white plates, glasses of water and wine, and several bottles of wine. There are large, decorative floral arrangements on the table. The background features a wall with a patterned design and a chandelier with many small, round, glowing lights. In the foreground, a sign is placed on a stand, partially obscuring the view of the table. The sign has a decorative border of the letters 'DBD' and contains text about the L.A. Mart Design Center.
